

The Persevering Power in Promises

1. How does the “for” in verse 13 function? Is it giving a cause, or explaining?
2. What is stated about Abraham's example (v15) that gives us one of the models of pursuing promises?
3. What are the two things about God's promises that give such consolation?
4. Why would God want to “show more abundantly to the heirs of promise the immutability of His counsel”?(Heb. 6:17)?
5. Why is Christ God's “Yes” and “Amen” to the promises (2 Cor 1:21)?
6. What does the image of refuge mean when it comes to Christ and the promises?
7. What does the image of an anchor mean when it comes to Christ and the promises?
8. What does the image of a forerunner mean when it comes to Christ and the promises?
9. What kind of promises are available to Christians? How do we know?
